The little Dutch boy who stopped the leak in the dike with his finger saved his country from overwhelming destruction. You have read about him in your school readers. Now he was walking along the dike when he heard a faint sound of trickling water, and knew at once that a leak had sprung in that great embankment which saves Holland from the devastating of the hungry sea. It was early in the night, and no one was near at hand. The leak was small when he found it, but he knew that the action of the water would enlarge it long before morning, and wash away the entire embankment, inundate the country and destroy his own and thousands of homes. So he bravely put his finger in the crevice, and kept it there all the long night through, until help came and the opening was properly stopped. He had saved his country.

Equally insignificant is the entrance of disease into the human system. The beginnings of the most terrible ailments are so small they can be easily stopped at the start. Your health is a dike which keeps out and stops the inroads of dangerous and devastating disease. Whenever it breaks down, no matter how slightly, there is an opening for disease to enter. If the opening is not watched, it will grow larger, until the sweep of disease overwhelms you, and health and perhaps life is destroyed forever.

Fortify your health with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and you can defy ill-health. You can make your health so strong a bulwark that disease cannot find a crevice through which it can creep. Taken in time, Dr. Pierce's remedies prevent greater and more serious troubles. Hundreds write daily to Dr. Pierce, telling him how these remedies have saved them and made them strong.

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is speedily cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

A SINGING WELL.

One of Nature's Puzzles That Is Located in Texas.

About three miles west of Cedar Bayou, Harris county, Tex., is a remarkable well. When it was dug, no one can tell, but it has been in existence for more than 60 years. The well is known as the "singing well."

In calm, fine weather a sound like that of an Aeolian harp comes upward between the tangles of vines below. At times the sound seems nearer and clearer. Then again it recedes, as if far away, and reaches the ear very faintly. These changes take place every few minutes, and with great regularity.

With an east wind blowing the water in the well gets very low and the mysterious musical sound very faint. A strong west wind causes the water to rise and the sound to increase in volume and clearness.

But it is just before a great norther that the old well plays its wildest pranks. Then for several hours the water rises to within a few feet of the top of the well and emits the weirdest, wildest noises that ever reached human ears. At such times even the water drawn out with buckets moans and wails as if in anguish.

The well is about 60 feet deep. A few years ago the land on which it is located was bought by a Mr. Watkins, who, not liking the sounds that came from the well, employed two men to fill it up. They shoveled dirt into the well two weeks, but it did not affect the depth of water perceptibly, and they threw up the contract. From the measurements of the excavations they had made it has been calculated that the well should have been filled up a little more than twice.

The water is very clear, with a bluish tint, and is fairly palatable. No other wells in the neighborhood show such pranks as are played by the "singing well,"—Fort Worth (Tex.) Cor. Chicago Inter Ocean.

AMERICAN HUMOR.

An English Comedian Compares It With the British Article.

George Grossmith, comparing American humor with English, says: "A New York gentleman was once chaffing me about my pronunciation of certain words, and I was very much amused at it. So I said to him: 'It's our language, you know. We invented it before you were discovered.' He was a bit abashed at first. Then he said: 'That's so. Well, I think it's about time you learned to speak it.'"

"It is very difficult to score off an American, and you can't play a practical joke on one at all. I've often gone, when I've had a friend with me, into some old city bank, like the Bank of England, for example,—staid old place, you know. We've marched up to the counter, and I've said quite calmly to the old gentleman behind it, 'Can't I have a brandy and soda and some sandwiches?' They've always been most polite and taken it seriously, saying, 'We don't keep brandy and soda and sandwiches here.' But you have them ordered in from outside." "Yes, but that of course is for ourselves," and so on, all quite gravely and without the suspicion of a smile or the slightest quiver of the muscles of the countenance to indicate a sense that a practical joke was fooling around."

"And in America you would have fared differently?" "Rather. I went once to the state-house in Hartford. There was a man standing at the entrance, an official with a band around his hat, so I stopped up to him and said, 'Can you tell me if this hotel is conducted on the European plan?' He simply looked at me, and calmly said, 'Any more?' Then there was a moment's awkward pause, and I had to walk out."

The last safe retreat of the beaver in the United States is the canyon of the Rio Grande, between Eagle pass and El Paso, a distance of about 300 miles.

There was a pleasant little surprise party at Judge Cheney's house last evening, where the young folks had a very pleasant time until about 12 o'clock.

E. L. Williams, District Attorney-elect of Washoe county, has returned to Reno from his visit to California and is ready to assume the duties of his office next Monday.

George Sauer and his bride, nee Cora Paek, arrived home from California, where they have been spending their honeymoon, yesterday morning. George looks a sauer as ever.

W. D. Jones, Attorney General-elect, arrived, with his family, from Austin last Wednesday night and passed up to Carson yesterday, ready to take charge of his office on Monday next.

One can not realize that silver is selling at such a low figure until they visit Doane's jewelry store and see the elegant silver novelties they can purchase for only a small sum.

Talmage says: "The grave of this century will soon be dug. The cradle of another century will soon be rocked. Although a very pretty piece of metaphor, Mr. Talmage rather overstates the general order of nature by stepping us from the grave into the cradle."

The incandescent electric lights on the Journal circuit were bucking again last night causing more or less, but generally more, curs words among the wicked types. The company is doubtless doing its best to put matters in shape but the present condition is extremely annoying to night toilers.

Mr. Newlands and the Carson Mint. Hon. Francis G. Newlands arrived in the local yesterday afternoon and at once took up his abode at the Arlington. He was busy all the evening and today receiving friends and their congratulations on the outlook of his contest for the United States Senatorship. Mr. Newlands is looking robust and healthy and boasts of having gained several pounds since his recent illness. He has little or nothing to say regarding his ambition to represent Nevada in the Upper House, beyond that the matter is now squarely before the people and they alone shall be the judges of what the result shall be, but he doesn't seem to be disturbed in the least and his friends say he has indeed no occasion to be.

Although the session of Congress before the holidays was very short Mr. Newlands was very active and beside a number of speeches on important matters did some excellent work in committee.

He has labored to have the Committee on Appropriations report favorably on a measure that will allow the Carson Mint to open full blast for the coinage of coin of the realm and while he declines to express an opinion as to the outcome it is plain to see that personally he is very confident of the success of his endeavors.

Should this indeed prove true Carson will hardly know herself, for the employment of nearly one hundred people at large salaries would create a boom here that would make the old timer think a new bonanza had been opened on the Comstock. The people of Nevada will doubtless assist as far as in their power in this movement.

Mr. Newlands will return to his home in Reno this evening.—News.

Sheriff Contest in Lander County. On Saturday evening newspaper papers were filed by Wm. Easton, through his attorneys, Jones & Gayhart of Austin, and Theodore Coffin of Carson, instituting a contest for the office of Sheriff and Assessor of Lander county against George Watt, Jr., who has been declared elected by the County Commissioners.

The complaint alleges that there were 60 or more illegal votes cast for and given to Watt that if deducted from the number counted for Watt would elect Easton.

It is also alleged that Watt promised the deputyship to three different persons name (and had since paid a money consideration to one of them to release him from his promise.

It is understood that illegal votes alleged, are those cast by electors coming into Lander from other counties and by residents of this county traveling from their home precinct to another to vote.—Renoille.

Consistent at Least. Our esteemed twilight contemporary, the Gazette, calls the JOURNAL a free trade paper because it doesn't admire the Dingier Act. What else could be expected of a publication which favors the distinctness of Nevada's principal industry, but that it would enthrone over a law which taxes our laborer.

ished people from fifteen to twenty per cent additional in the cost of the necessities of life, while not a hundred people in the State are benefitted to the amount of a nickel by any or every class in the law? The Gazette is at least consistent in favoring everything which oppresses the people of the State in which it is published, and to whose people it is supposed to derive its support.

Another Benediction. George B. McFarlan of Reno, who has been missing from his customary haunts for some days, returned yesterday morning from San Francisco to his home accompanied by a bride. He was married last Sunday in San Francisco to Miss Abbie Gruners, formerly of Reno. George had erected and furnished a nice little cage, ready for occupation, on Walnut street, and then caught his bird. Upon his arrival here yesterday they went directly to their new home. Their friends wish them a long and happy voyage on the matrimonial sea.

Politician. Two young men, J. A. Griffin and William Powers, yesterday, while passing Levy's Palace Dry Goods store, appropriated to their own use, without leave, a bed quilt valued at $2.50, from a pile which lay on a box outside of the store door. They were arrested by Constable McNeilly and taken before Justice Richardson, where they pleaded guilty to petit larceny. They will receive their sentence to-day at one o'clock.

New Incorporation. The Rose Valley Grax Co. incorporated a few days ago. The business and work are in Harney county, Oregon, but the headquarters will be in Reno. C. L. Taylor was elected President and R. M. Fulton, Secretary. The Directors are C. L. Taylor, John Fulton, R. M. Fulton, A. J. Taylor and P. L. Flannigan.

Sad News. Billy Rindrup received the sad intelligence yesterday of the death of his mother, in Germany, at the advanced age of 84 years. To increase the sad news, Billy has been thinking for a long time of returning to Germany on a visit to his mother but was delayed on account of business interests in California.

To Whom It May Concern. I have this day appointed J. H. Smith Sheriff Inspector for Buffalo Meadows precinct with full power to act as such officer, as provided by law. J. W. Lopez.

Inspector for Washoe County. Reno, Dec. 10, 1898. *Lewy

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Did Not Interfere. Z. Pierce, who is an announced candidate for U. S. Senator, in a letter to the S. F. Bulletin, among other things says:

"As for myself, a Republican, I will say that I was a delegate to the Republican Convention, and took an active part in passing the nomination for Congress in the interest of Newlands. I claim that I had the balance of power upon the action of the convention upon that question. I took that stand knowing it was virtually endorsing Newlands for Congress."

Mr. Pierce, however, will not assert, we opine, that Mr. Newlands or any of his friends approach him or any other delegate in the Republican State Convention, upon the subject of passing the nomination for Congressman in his interest. Nor will he assert, we are confident, that Mr. Newlands or his friends attempted to influence the action of the convention in any respect whatever. Senator Stewart's political manager, however, as is well known, endeavored to induce the delegates to nominate a certain gentleman for Congressman, and as generally understood against the interest of Mr. Newlands in his candidacy for that office. Senator Stewart in a letter lately published, acknowledged that his agent was interfering with the action of the Republican State Convention and that he wrote him to quit it. The JOURNAL knows something about the matter, and will give considerable odds that all of the interference came from the Stewart side of the Silver party house.

The Wheelmen's Ball. The Decorating Committee which has been busily engaged for the past ten days in putting the interior of the Pavilion into presentable shape finished its labors last night and it was the unanimous verdict of the large number who "dropped in just to see how it looked," that it excelled all previous efforts in the way of decorations. The best and only way to form an idea of its magnificent appearance is to purchase a ticket and be sure and attend the dance. To attempt to go into detail would require a great deal of space and would but imperfectly present its appearance. Another feature of the dance will be the music that will be rendered by the Wheelmen's Band. The band is recognized as the best musical combination of which Reno has ever been able to boast and it will outdo itself on this occasion, as the members have been faithfully practicing for some time. Give the Club your encouragement by attending.

Dangerous Experiment. The San Francisco Press Club has planned a unique dinner at which time and all old superstitions will be defied. On Friday, January 13, at 8.13, thirteen will sit at a table. It is to be hoped that our San Francisco press brethren will be more successful in their attempt to ally a popular superstition than was a Boston shipowner, many years ago, in which he defied the sailors' ominous dread of going to sea on Friday. According to nautical tradition, the shipowner built a ship. The keel was laid on Friday. She was launched on Friday. A captain named Friday was engaged to command her. She sailed on Friday, and every orthodox sailor will swear by old Neptune's trident that she went to — on Friday.

Botkin Case. The argument for the defense in the Botkin case was resumed yesterday. Attorney McGowan talking. Mr. McGowan reviewed the evidence in the case from beginning to end and said that the prosecution had not made out a case against his client. He roasted the police department and said that a great deal of evidence in the case had been manufactured by the prosecution. He claimed that the seal of Hans, the candy man, found in Mrs. Botkin's room, was placed there by someone interested in the prosecution. Prosecuting Attorney Hosmer will speak this afternoon for the prosecution, winding up the arguments. To-day Judge Cook will deliver his charge and the case will go to the jury.

An Interesting Case. All people are interested in a new case that has recently cropped up in Reno, and they have good reason for being so. This case contains many striking features. It is Mr. F. P. Dunn's show case on Virginia street, down by the iron bridge. It is very beautiful, his new window display, of all that is modern in photography. There are one may see large opalotypes, small autotypes and lovely porcelaines. Just think! Artistic photographs on genuine porcelain. And what do you think of this? He makes photographs on handkerchiefs—silk handkerchiefs. What more appropriate present could be imagined than one of these with your photo on it?

BREVITIES. The banks will close next Monday, it being a legal holiday.

Miss Flo Pinniger of San Francisco is visiting her relatives in Reno.

Jason Simpson whose arm was broken on an ice pond was taken to the County hospital yesterday.

A Clever Trick. It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can take it who has lame back and weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by taking Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, head aches, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 60c a bottle at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

Millions Given Away. It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who is not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on S. J. Hodgkinson Druggist, and get a trial bottle. Regular size 50 cent and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

1849-50 Years-1899. Fifty years of progression in the far west has developed wonderful changes and improvements. Everything else had changed since '49, and it devolved upon Loofbourrow, the Cash Grocer, and the poor man's friend to come to the rescue within the half-breath two months of time completing the half century, and give the people groceries and general merchandise at reasonable rates. Don't be a snooker any longer, but bring your cash along and see how loudly it will talk. Corner Commercial Row and Sierra streets.

What Did He Mean? The JOURNAL reporter dropped into McCullough's drug store yesterday in search of an item of local news, and the gentlemanly attendant, the Commodore, very snarely replied to the reporter's inquiry for a local item—"We have a very fine article of compound Colicolic pills, which which we can recommend in all local troubles." The reporter didn't invest.
